DESCRIPTION

Designed by Sergio Mazza in 1959, Alfa was the first lamp to enter the Artemide catalogue in the year the company was founded and it is still in production today.

Alfa revisits the traditional abat-jour typology, reinterpreting it through the use of crafted crystal, which evokes the fine pleating of a classic fabric lampshade. Precious details, such as the marble base and brass stem, define its sophisticated character and make it an example of timeless elegance.
