2026 / 27

On the occasion of its tenth anniversary, Qeeboo —founded in 2016— continues to evolve through narrative research and design experimentation. Each collection emerges as an exploration, expanding the language of design while connecting imagination, function, and expressive freedom.

The Qeeboo universe unfolds as a transversal system of objects and typologies, where each element contributes to unexpected scenarios. Design becomes a tool to activate new spatial perceptions and establish a dialogue between image, storytelling, and use. The 2026 collection follows this direction, expanding categories and reinforcing an increasingly immersive and distinctive approach.

This year marks an important new collaboration with Paola Navone, introducing a fresh sensibility that broadens the brand's expressive horizon. Paola Navone, with whom I share a passion for fish, designs Lapu Lapu, a lounge pouf defined by soft, fluid volumes recalling the shape of a fish—an universal symbol of freedom and harmony—encouraging a relaxed way of living. From the same vision comes Kaya, a solid sculptural seat with a rich textured surface that enhances its presence.

Among the novelties, Malibu reinterprets the palm tree as an iconic floor lamp, defining indoor and outdoor spaces as luminous landmarks. The lighting collection is further enriched by expressive designs: Lullaby Lamp reimagines the classic archetype through a soft mushroom-inspired silhouette, combining portability and functionality; Hoodie Lamp, designed by Job Smeets and me, introduces an anthropomorphic presence with an adjustable head; Tuiuiu Lamp by Furf Studio translates the elegance of a Brazilian bird into a poetic lighting object.

The Turtle family by Marcantonio expands with three new versions: a removable table tray, a reinterpretation of the traditional valet stand, and a renewed bed table.

Expanding Qeeboo's universe, the collaboration with Craig & Karl reflects a dialogue with a new generation of creatives. Ceramics, cushions, and modular poufs become narrative surfaces where colors, patterns, and iconic characters create dynamic environments.

This year we are also unveiling new brand collaborations with some of the brands we love most. Fiorucci and Fiat 500 have always been true icons in everyone's imagination and we are proud to partner with them on the creation of two special capsule collections. Additionally, we are pleased to collaborate with Ichendorf, with whom we will launch a range of glassware products.

The 2026 collection invites us to imagine environments where objects have a narrative presence, shaping experiences, atmospheres, and identities.

Finally, I would like to deeply thank everyone who contributed to this creative journey, for their commitment, vision, and shared energy.

Mexico

designed by Studio Job

2017

Stool and Side Table /
Portable Lamp /
Planter and Champagne Cooler

Job was inspired by a legendary figure who lived wrapped in mystery: “the singer without a name”. “No one had ever seen her come out of her house, where heavy velvet curtains hid her from the eyes of the curious. The inscrutable singer was the author of a great musical success entitled, in fact, Mexico” (Job Smeets).

The result is a story that plays down on what scares us most, death, meaning that it cancels the features of the face and transforms it into something else. Decorated with the Mexican skull's graphic pattern, a symbol created to exorcise death and celebrate life, it can become an extravagant stool, side table or planter.

Fabrics & Colors

At Qeeboo we put a lot of effort into researching materials and finishings. We believe in long lasting products and in responsible manufacturing processes. We are proud to have a Made in Italy production and to use recyclable/reusable PE polyethylene (the “plastic”) as the main material for our rotational moulding products. Also, no toxins or chemicals are released into the air during the manufacturing process and, unlike other processes, rotational moulding wastes very few materials therefore helping to reduce the carbon footprint. The base-polymers that we use are transformed in Italian Factories, using renewable energies in production processes and with Environmental Systems certified accordingwith ISO14001:2015, therefore favoring a general reduction in both production and longer range transportation co2 emissions.
