LIVING CLASS

Luxury cannot be told.
You have to touch it,
Smell it and feel it.

Bruno Zangari

The luxury of details

My eyes have been filled with joy
I have admired shapes and projects
I have witnessed how the finest finishes can enhance outstanding materials
I have perceived beauty in a pursuit of uniqueness
I have beheld craftsmen working with the utmost expertise
I have seen curves and lines giving shape to harmonious designs
I have smelled the scents of wood, metal and leather
I filled the spaces with creativity
I have sat on comfortable and elegant seats
And I have dreamed on a golden bed
