The art of carving as a heritage

Carving wood, an ancient art, deep-rooted and bound to the territory of Brianza, where Belloni srl, was established and still operates.

The art of Carving requires a deep knowledge of the raw material.

Every single type of timber possesses its set of peculiarities, an own life that deserves to be respected and properly treated in every stage of the producing process.

A carving-master has to have strong skills of ornamental drawing.

He must be aware of the rules that settle the modelling of each element, he must be an expert in the countless features that every single carving tool allows.

It is not an improvised art: it requires years of careful practice.

Only through these premises that carving delicacy, which gives to every piece that distinctiveness and beauty typical of something finished with passion and craftsmanship, can be achieved.

*Boiserie and doors
A piece of furniture, indeed.
How we work*

Boiserie

*Boiserie,
the most classic tapestry Actually, a piece of furniture itself A room inside another room Totally custom-made,
It can be enriched with a multitude of embellishments either ornamental (carvings, inlays, pictorial elements) or functional (compartments, hidden cabinets balanced with the whole setting,
structures for curtain equipment, wiring and all the necessities of a modern household)
A boiserie should be nothing but customised!
Any single detail is carefully planned, its design is characterized by an intensive collaboration between designer and customer so that every detail will fulfil the expectations of the latter.
Manufacturing a boiserie requires long timing.
It includes a careful analysis: every single imperfection of the structure where the piece of furniture will be installed is wisely evaluated and corrected.
This procedure plays a fundamental role in the work process.
Aiming at making this value tangible, Belloni manufactures every single ornament perfectly,
All carvings are wooden, all finishings are hand-made, Well-known painters assist our craftsmen creating enchanting pictorial elements, from simple and well-balanced pictures to magnificent artistic trompe l'oeil.
A boiserie-decorated room is an eternal masterpiece!*

An inlay: drawing with wood

The ancient art of precision which allows to portray marvellous drawings on a wood veneer, exploiting its natural hints: a conjunction of arts which can be so unique only thanks to the professional skills of a master carver.

*All our procedures are hand-made; the use of small jig saws permits to cut any part following a pre-determined and agreed pattern.
Then, each thin and small part is fitted one after another, as in a jigsaw puzzle, to give shape to the final drawing.
An inlay master is an expert in giving value to the natural hints of a wood, matching stained planks, or creating harmonious shades by covering every single tiny part with hot sand, which generates subtle-coloured burnings, changing their tonality in the desired way.
A quality inlay is a life-long value, which can be created through patience, timing, good taste, precision and expertise in the raw material, wood.*
