Org

Tavolino — Service table | Fabio Novembre — 2001

ITA

L’appendiabiti Tuta, firmato Nendo, è un modello da terra dal design essenziale e leggero. La struttura in metallo tagliato a laser, verniciata in bianco, fango o nero, sembra una scultura domestica dai contorni ben definiti, come se fossero tracciati nell’aria, pur garantendo grande stabilità. Il nome, che in giapponese significa “edera”, richiama la forma slanciata e ramificata del progetto, simile a quella di una pianta rampicante.
