19 JUNE, 4–5 PM

DAILY AFTERNOON DRINKS
3–6 PM

Join us in Copenhagen from 18–20 June during 3daysofdesign for DESIGN / DIALOGUE, an exhibition curated by Ark Journal in collaboration with stylist Pernille Vest. Held in the inspiring Pakhus 11, the showcase features the ALDE seating collection by David Thulstrup alongside the KANAME table family by Philipp Mainzer. The presentation is enriched with exquisite tapestry by Anni Albers, and introduces the KERMAN sofa by Farah Ebrahimi and Philipp Mainzer, now with new angled modules facilitating dynamic layouts that adapt to expressive environments.

On 19 June at 4 to 5 PM, join an engaging dialogue with David Thulstrup, Philipp Mainzer, and Farah Ebrahimi of e15, exploring modernism, authenticity, and cultural narratives in design.

ALDE
BY
THULSTRUP

ALDE Collection by Danish architect David Thulstrup is a seating family with refined modernist lines, which was originally developed with e15 for Copenhagen's Michelin-starred Alouette restaurant. Merging style and functional precision, each piece – Armchair, Side Chair, Lounger, and Club Chair fitted with a swivel base – features refined, essential forms with comfortably upholstered seats and backrests. ALDE is offered in natural oak, chocolate brown or dark brown stained, lacquered finishes.

KANAME
BY PHILIPP
MAINZER

Table KANAME by Philipp Mainzer, draws inspiration from its Japanese name, meaning pivot or vital point — symbolizing its role as a central, unifying element in any space. Crafted from solid wood, it features a sculptural base, providing elegant balance and stability. Available in round, oval, and rectangular shapes, KANAME is offered in solid European oak, walnut as well as chocolate brown and dark brown stained, lacquered finishes.

Coffee table KANAME is an elegant sculptural centrepiece, crafted from solid European oak. Its pivoted structural base offers intriguing viewpoints and perspectives. It is offered in solid European oak, walnut as well as chocolate brown and dark brown stained, lacquered finishes.

KERMAN
BY FARAH
EBRAHIMI
PHILIPP
MAINZER

Modular sofa KERMAN features a sculpted silhouette that balances ease and bold presence, merging elegant comfort with modernist style. Built for versatility, it features seating modules, poufs, a corner module, and varied armrest heights with removable covers, allowing configurations from single modules to expansive sofa landscapes using available sofa connectors.

Updated in 2025 with angled modules, KERMAN conveniently facilitates dynamic forms and conversational layouts that adapt to expressive configurations and diverse seating needs. Crafted in Italy with precision, KERMAN combines clean lines and flexible layouts, making it a distinct piece for private and public spaces.

DESIGNERS

DAVID THULSTRUP

David Thulstrup is a Danish architect and designer based in Copenhagen, known for his modern simplicity style that merges Scandinavian roots with contemporary design. After training with Jean Nouvel and Peter Marino, he founded Studio David Thulstrup in 2009. His portfolio includes acclaimed projects like Noma's interior and spans architecture, interiors, and furniture. For e15, Thulstrup designed the TANK stool, a bold oak piece for Gasoline Grill, and the TORE side tables, sculptural works in marble or wood inspired by Art Deco. He also created the ALDE collection with e15, originally for Copenhagen's Michelin-starred Alouette restaurant, featuring refined, functional designs that complement dining spaces with timeless elegance.

PHILIPP MAINZER

Born in Germany, Philipp Mainzer studied product design at Central Saint Martins College of Art and Design, and architecture at the Architectural Association both in London. In 1995, Philipp Mainzer co-founded the furniture brand e15. He has received international awards for many of his designs, which are identifying icons for e15 and part of several permanent museum collections. Parallel to the creation of e15, Philipp Mainzer practiced architecture in New York and continues to do so since his return to Germany in 2001. He is a member of the executive committee of German Design Council and honorary member of the Deutsche Designer Club. Having established the progressive and enduring appeal of e15 with Farah Ebrahimi, his partner and art director, Philipp Mainzer is creative and managing director of the brand and PMO, his office for architecture and design.

FARAH EBRAHIMI

Farah Ebrahimi is the Art Director of e15. Born in Iran, she studied art and fashion at Otis/Parsons School of Art and Design in Los Angeles, graduating in 1987. This was followed by a career in teaching fashion design and dress history at her alma mater, in addition to establishing her own fashion label, Ef. Later, as Design Director of BCBG Max Azria she became a creative force behind the brand's successful rise, before joining Donna Karan as Design Director for DKNY in New York. There she met her partner Philipp Mainzer, architect and co-founder of e15. In 2001, they relocated to Frankfurt, where together with e15 she transformed Bergman, Germany's first concept store into a pioneering retail and show space whilst curating notable art and design exhibitions. In 2008, Farah and Philipp received the Design Award of the Federal Republic of Germany for their SHIRAZ sofa, followed by the 2017 Interior Innovation – Gold award for the KERMAN sofa. That year, they were also named honorary members of the Deutscher Designer Club (DDC), affirming her influence on e15's enduring creative vision.

ABOUT E15

e15 is a premium interior brand renowned for its collection of distinct furniture. Named after the postal code of its first workshop in London, e15 was founded in 1995. Based in Frankfurt, Germany the company stands for consistent, progressive design coupled with high-grade materials, refined craftsmanship and sustainable manufacturing. With a strong foundation in architecture and design, the brand is defined by the unique backgrounds of architect and founder Philipp Mainzer together with designer and art director Farah Ebrahimi.

Since 1995, e15 develops original products and supports artistic statements, which reflect the brand's philosophy and open approach to diverse cultures and disciplines. In addition to reissued design classics by protagonists of Modernism, the collection evolves from close cooperation with a coterie of designers, architects, and artists.
