

TERZANI

artisanal elegant refined bespoke modern creative sculptural timeless emotive handmade made in italy

Founded in Florence in 1972, Terzani transforms light into art through the hands of skilled artisans. Each piece is meticulously crafted in historic crystal workshops, renowned metal foundries, or by master ironworkers.—each deeply rooted in the rich tradition of Tuscan craftsmanship. At Terzani, we believe in the enduring value of Tuscan craftsmanship—not only as a source of excellence, but as a cultural heritage to be protected, supported, and reimagined. We are deeply committed to sustaining this legacy by working closely with local artisans, preserving traditional techniques, and promoting their relevance in contemporary design. This dedication is the soul of Terzani: where every creation becomes a suspended sculpture, blending innovation, elegance, and tradition. From bespoke installations to unique artistic statements, Terzani crafts emotion through illumination. When art meets light.

Genesis, floating knit

Dragon, art's heartbeat

Harpe, the sound of light

Argent, mon bijou

Argent, a precious cloud

The soul of Terzani lies in experimentation, creativity, and a constant search for new expressive languages. This visionary spirit is reflected in its sculptures, which create poetic reflections of light and shadow all around them.

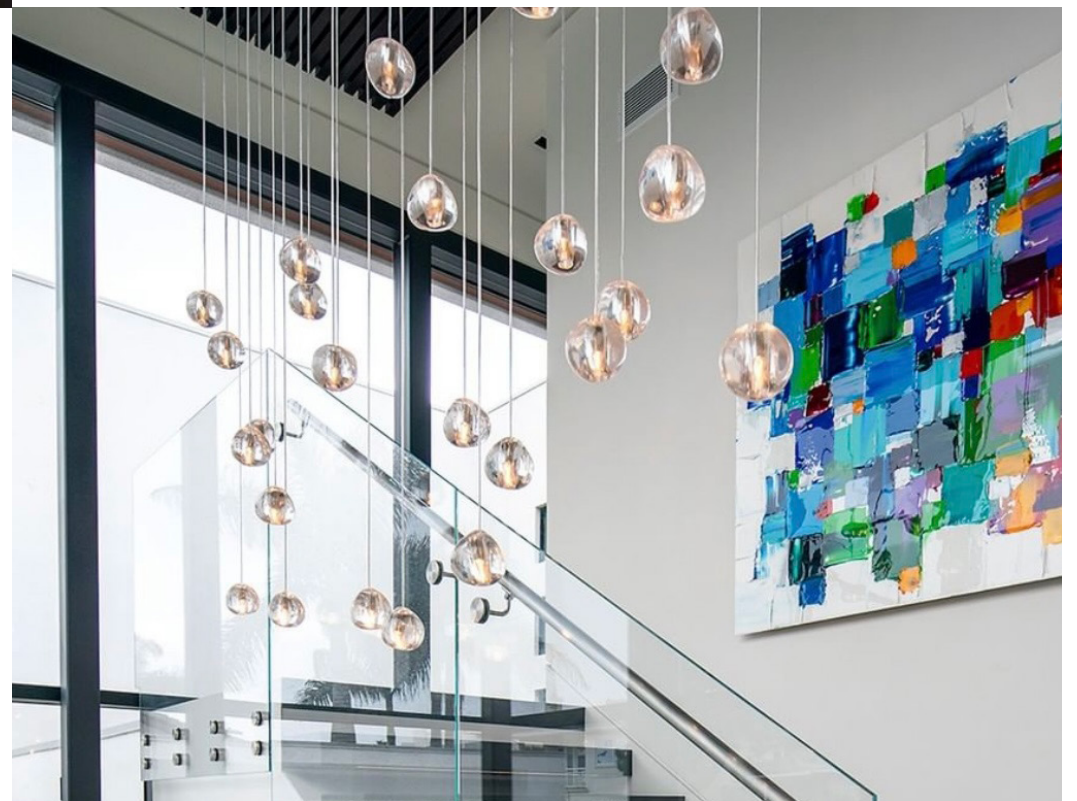

Mizu, flowing light

Terzani's design is the result of deep aesthetic research, inspired by the shapes of nature and the emotions that light can evoke. This is how iconic products such as Mizu, which captures the beauty of suspended water.

Each luminous sculpture is crafted from an artisanal tradition, using precious hand-worked materials

TERZANI

terzani.com